DRAFT

20 September 1950

PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTIVE ON DEPARTURE OF PERSONS FROM THE UNITED STATES

To assure the nation's internal security and in order to achieve advantages for the operations of government I hereby direct all Federal Departments and Agencies to:

1. Furnish to the Department of State the names, birthplaces, and birthdates of all United States citizens whose departure from this country is of interest to the pertinent Department or Agency.
2. Furnish to the Commissioner, Immigration and Naturalization Service of the Department of Justice, the names, birthplaces and birthdates of all aliens whose departure from this country is of interest to the pertinent Department or Agency.

This information should be furnished, as stated, whether or not there is any indication that departure is imminent.

Upon receipt of an application for passport from any of the individuals listed by any of the Departments or Agencies, the Department of State will consult with the applicable Department or Agency before making a determination on approval or disapproval of the request for travel abroad.
